SPRING IS COMING! A Celebration of June

The weather is just starting to warm up, and the snow is melting.

June will be here before we know it and we want to celebrate early with a wonderful special and an incredible treat!

These aren't spring flowers, they are the most amazing cookies baked with loving care by June!

Many of you have followed our trail out to New Braintree to June's Bake Shop. This is a wonderful celebration of love, life and deliciousness baked into cookies and cakes.

June has been providing these one of a kind treats for more than 20 years and we love them so much we are bringing them to you to celebrate the spring. Each one is Energize your body for spring with our Conscious Body Cleanse package!
